Plus, Flex underwriting in these states and AZ

Today I'm pleased to announce the OneAmerica Financial[®] debut of an enhanced product offering. Its new features help address many of the most complicated aspects of giving and receiving long-term care. And it highlights our delivery of caring expertise at every step.

We help you grow your business by caring for your clients. We know that for them, long-term care protection is about more than finances — it's about compassion during challenging times. That's why we designed our newest Asset Care offering to provide solutions delivered with flexibility and care. It enables your clients to cover long-term care expenses if they need it, or they can leave a financial legacy to loved ones if they don't.
